

Jun 25_15 My Son's Church: man fails to defend the Divinity of this Institution.

Evening Rosary.

Themes:

I have come to rescue the Church, My little ones; I, your Mother, the Ever-Virgin Mary shall crush satan's head, stop his evil deeds and purify the Church.

Thank Me, My children, for the goodness you have received and will receive; I placed My Heart in yours and you cared for It and so I thank you, My Children, your gift shall be great, My Life and yours shall be one.

All shall in brief time, end; My Church shall be purified, sanctified, you shall be given Divine Knowledge, Holy Discernment, the veil shall be lifted from your eyes and you shall truly see the Gift I left for you on Earth, Divine gift, that very few appreciate and for which thanks are rarely given.

Push onward, My children, seek protection under the mantle of My Daughter, The Blessed Virgin Mary, Her triumph is definitive and you shall be at Her side, she shall crush the head of satan and you shall rejoice in the New Kingdom that I shall grant you.

in the parable of the workers in the vineyard, it does not matter whether you have hardly worked or that you might have practically wasted your whole life; the short time you have left be My worker, give yourself to Me and save My souls, bring Me joy, My children, give Me your love.

A Message from God the Father, Our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Blessed Virgin Mary to J.V.

First Mystery. The Most Blessed Virgin Mary speaks.

Theme: I have come to rescue the Church, My little ones; I, your Mother, the Ever-Virgin Mary shall crush satan's head, stop his evil deeds and purify the Church.

My little children, I am your Mother, the Ever Virgin Mary and I come to you to accompany you in prayer, to pray for the Church that My Son founded. Satan knows the value of this Divine Institution, and so, he has attacked it from the beginning, but the Promise of My Son is that he was not going to be able to destroy it and that She would exist until the end of the world, and thus it shall be, My little ones.

Unfortunately, it is man who fails --that which is Divine remains. Mankind's lack of Faith leads man into seeing only the man and not the Divine, and criticizes My Son's Church because of the actions of man and fails to defend the Divinity of this Institution.

Undoubtedly, you are prone to criticism. You see only the evil that surrounds everything, especially, in these times when satan has managed to stir up much negative actions within the Church, and thus, criticism shall destroy the sanctity of many priests, of many of My beloved sons, who have maintained Her through the strength of prayer, a life of Grace and, at times, extreme suffering.

I have said that prayer is most powerful and I have asked you incessantly for prayer throughout My Apparitions. Pray, pray for my priests, My beloved sons. There are many who need your prayers, who need your support, and you must care for them, so that through them, you may receive the Sanctifying Graces of the Sacraments. Much love you must hold in your heart and above all, that you may come to better understand the priestly life and thus understand satan's forceful attacks against the Church, by leading a life of prayer.

She is being continuously attacked by satan; he wishes to destroy Her from Her foundations, but he shall never achieve it. Observe how She is attacked: lacerated by him, through those who follow satan and are responsible for criticizing the Work of My Son, because of the actions of some priests who have entered this Divine Institution to wreak havoc with the evil deeds they themselves enact, in order to make the faithful believe that, truly, this Divine Institution is crumbling -- this is not so, My Little ones.

These are times of warfare, times in which you are seeing how everything spiritual, everything Divine, is being severely attacked and many of your brethren are losing Faith, love towards God, in his Holy Trinity. This is why I have come to rescue the Church, My little ones; I, your Mother, the Ever-Virgin Mary shall crush satan's head, stop his evil deeds and purify the Church.

Join Me, My little ones, with your good example, with your prayer, your life of Grace. That you may be an example to your brethren and to the whole world that the Church is alive, and that from Her, you obtain Divine Nourishment that gives you life and helps you grow, and remain hopeful in a future and eternal life with our God and Lord.
Thank you, My children.

Second Mystery. Our Lord Jesus Christ speaks.

Theme: Thank Me, My children, for the goodness you have received and will receive; I placed My Heart in yours and you cared for It and so I thank you, My Children, your gift shall be great, My Life and yours shall be one.

My children, many of you are still not aware that the Sacraments are the greatest Gifts of all, of the need to live a Sacramental life to achieve Divine gifts, obtained by living according to My Laws.

My children, to revel in the Sacraments is something wondrous for the soul, and I insist, it is a tremendous and spiritual joy that the soul experiences when I can embody you, through the Sacraments.

Throughout your lifetime, you have experienced difficult moments, sometimes sinful or gravely sinful moments, and this makes you feel bad inside. At times, you may come to feel that those around you are able to see the state of your soul, and it might make you feel the desire to withdraw from everyone so they may not see you, so that they remain unaware of the state of your soul.

I have given you the Sacrament of Penance and through this Sacrament you may return to Me and I shall cleanse your soul of all sin, and you may continue to enjoy the Gifts I bestow upon you.

When a priest, in My Name, forgives your sins, you feel a wave of relief. How many times, have you not left the confessional smiling, knowing My Presence has cleansed you of all sin? That is a great joy, the first joy for the soul, I might say, because in Faith, you are experiencing My Grace purifying your sins. However, the next greatest of joys is when you receive Me in the Holy Eucharist.

When a soul is growing and is on the path to perfection, with My Help, it begins acquiring the grace of feeling My Presence, of Living Me, of enjoying Me. Thus, the soul rejoices in My Presence, it cries tears of joy, noticeably enjoys My Presence within, laughs, rejoices immensely because it has reached a higher state, because it has sought this greater state, because it has used all its strength and desire to Live Me.

You, yourself, have seen the manner in which many of your brethren receive Me, when the priest gives you My Body. How many of them, have you noted, actually receive Me in recollection, rejoice in Me, stay a while to speak with Me and truly enter into the depth of their heart and converse with Me, even if briefly? On the other hand, many, many of your brethren receive Me as part of the ritual, because it is part of the Holy Mass, but not because God will be entering into the deep recess of their being to communicate with each one.

These and all the other Sacraments lead you into a mystical life, a life of profound love, a spiritual sensibility, that I give to those souls who seek sanctity. He who seeks Me shall find Me and he who finds Me, lives Me, and he who lives Me rejoices intensely and transmits his joy. In Scriptures you may read how the early Christians were an example, they were different from the rest because they lived Me, rejoiced in My Presence in them, that is the transformation that those of you who seek Me, shall experience: this is what I have spoken to you for months and years.

You have given your part, you have searched for Me, I have shown Myself to you and soon, very soon, I shall Be among you. Thank Me, My children, for the goodness you have received and will receive. I placed My Heart in yours and you cared for It and so I thank you, My Children; your gift shall be great, My Life and yours shall be one.
Thank you, My children.

Third Mystery. God the Father Speaks.

Theme: All shall in brief time, end; My Church shall be purified, sanctified, you shall be given Divine Knowledge, Holy Discernment, the veil shall be lifted from your eyes and you shall truly see the Gift I left for you on Earth, Divine gift, that very few appreciate and for which thanks are rarely given.

My children, the World is in this state because satan has managed to make you stray from prayer and a life of Grace.

The scandal that has befallen My Church is part of satan's plan, because most definitely, many persons who are not really priestly ministers have infiltrated Her, and this Masonic plan has driven many faithful away from prayer, as they watch the scandals that these persons, who do not belong in the Church, provoke.

This is the way of mankind: a tendency to generalize and draw away and not realize this because Holy Discernment is not requested in order to understand how satan attacks all that, which comes from Me.

He has cunningly made you turn away from prayer, because you see only the bad things that are happening in My Church, but you do not rise up to defend most of the priests who are good and are on My side. Thus, by failing to pray for them, you leave them adrift and satan viciously attacks them, and many of them fall because they no longer have your protection that prayer gives, nor the offering, in their favor, of your Masses and Holy Communion.

You must understand, My children, that you live in the Communion of Saints and that you must protect each other. You must understand that satan wants to destroy all that is Divine, so that you are no longer able to receive the Nourishment that I have left for you on Earth. If he destroys My good ministers, what will you do? You are truly in the midst of a war, a spiritual war. How are you protecting yourselves against satan, a very real enemy, who attacks you? How are you protecting your Church leaders? So many missionary priests who seek to win souls for the Kingdom of Heaven; many who are murdered or fall into the clutches of satan, who ensnares them by making use of their own weaknesses for women or vices that satan himself places before them to divert them from their ministry.

You do not stop to think about these realities and you lose; you lose leaders, leaders of the Church who defend you with the Masses they officiate, with their prayers, with the gift of themselves, with their penances. You ought to thank each one of them for what you receive with each Mass that is officiated around the World, because every Mass that is officiated bestows Graces on all humanity, and for this, you are not grateful.

You should be more aware of what the life of the Church is, how you must care for each other, how you ought to put aside criticism and of how you must give more to prayer, prayer for protection, prayer for life, prayer of thanks.

Surely, all shall end in a brief span of time; My Church shall be purified, sanctified, you shall receive Divine Knowledge, Holy Discernment, the veil will be lifted from your eyes and you shall truly see the Gift I left for you on Earth, Divine gift that you seldom appreciate and for which you rarely give thanks.

Ask me to teach you to love this greatest of Gifts you have in your midst, and protect your priests and ministers of My Church, nuns, and all those who seek to live for Me, in My Love.

Thank you, My children.

Fourth Mystery. God the Father Speaks.
